Edinburgh After Dark: Vampires, ghosts and witches of the old town Ron Halliday
Everyone knows the tales of haunted castles and ghost-ridden cemeteries that have long plagued Scotland's well-known capital. But there are few who understand the deeper, darker facets of Edinburgh's paranormal past. Now, Scotland's foremost investigator of the weird and the bizarre shares his wealth of knowledge in an attempt to reveal the city's hidden underworld. Expanding on previously sparse documentation, Ron Halliday's new book examines the variety of paranormal happenings that have featured in Edinburgh's past and present. From vampires and UFOs, to magical sites and poltergeists, Halliday draws on personal investigation to create a lively and modern exploration that will reveal why Edinburgh really is the perfect capital for the most haunted country in the world.
