The Detective's Second Chance (The Coach's Boys Series Book 7) Kristy K. James
Book 7 in the popular series, The Coach's Boys

Sometimes, life can be a little rough…
And no one knows more about that than Detective Ed Winslow. But just because the mystery of his stalker has been solved doesn't mean everything is all sunshine and rainbows now. The question is, will things ever settle down enough so he can make more permanent arrangements with the love of his life? Or will there always be something else to stand in their way?

How long, exactly, is a girl supposed to wait…
Jenna Taggert is nothing if not patient. In nearly three years, she'd never once considered walking away, not even after being kidnapped by the person whose only goal in life was to kill the man of her dreams. By his side is the only place she wants to be. Still, she can't help but hope that, one day, they might make a life together.

Warning: While this is a sweet romance, it does deal with the mental health issues of a woman who was the victim of childhood sexual abuse.
