With a spectacular pop-up of the Coliseum as its centerpiece, this interactive book places young readers in ancient Rome as few others do. Children are able to explore the port or walk down the street of a Roman city, visit an authentic Roman bath, and take in the awe-inspiring grandeur of the Coliseum. The military might of the Roman Empire is also highlighted in the book, which explains how legions were organized and which encourages kids to put their strategic abilities to the test by playing the Gallic Wars. This hands-on book also includes four board games with all of the corresponding pieces, ensuring that history is never boring.
