Singled Out (Breaking Pointe) (Volume 1) Amy Elizabeth
From the outside looking in, Chris and Jasmine Navarro appear to have it all. As a commercial pilot for a major airline, Chris gets paid to travel the world. Once a principal dancer for the New York City Ballet, Jasmine now teaches at the most prestigious dance academy in Los Angeles. They have a house in the suburbs, jobs they love, and a wonderful circle of friends. But behind closed doors, a long struggle has slowly sapped the joy from their marriage. Jasmine has tried for years–without success–to become pregnant. When they finally seek help from a fertility clinic, they receive a devastating diagnosis: Chris can't have children. Ever. Down the street, Kyle Parrish is enjoying his own version of the American dream. As a successful model and actor, his world revolves around extreme sports, fast cars, and faster women. He has no commitments to anyone, and that's the way he likes it. The only person he truly cares about–the only real friend he has–is Chris. There's nothing he wouldn't do for him. So when Chris comes to him with a very unusual request, Kyle doesn't hesitate to say yes. But his seemingly simple solution is anything but for Jasmine and Kyle, who share a complicated history of their own…including a secret Chris knows nothing about.
