Ladies Paradise Mina Black
Jake figured that he was a journalist who couldn't be touched by local politics. But now he is on a very special island for the inauguration of Amanda Vanders. In fact, he’s in the audience when she announces something spectacular, something that has never been attempted before.

With one public address, Amanda Vanders revokes men’s rights.

From this point forward, men will no longer be citizens in this city. They won’t be allowed to hold office or own property; they will have no rights. In this city, every man will wear a shock collar and tag. If a man isn't collared, then he can be claimed by any woman who happens to find him.

To make this especially simple for the women on this island, Vanders unveils a program that has already been in effect for some time. The water supply has been spiked with a special sedative that only affects men. If they try to resist, they will find that they are far weaker than ever before.

Right away, Jake tries to get off of the island, but he trusts the wrong girl, Sandy, one of his employees. Before he knows it, she claims him, locking collar around his neck and escorting him to her new home. There, he's going to be trained as an obedient male, domesticated and subjugated. She'll strip him, and she’ll play with him. Like it or not, he will serve her every whim.

Jake needs to believe that he’s still a powerful individual. If he can just maintain his sense of independence long enough, then he will figure out some way off of this island. But if he can't, he knows that his former employee will wear him down until he forgets what it means to be a man.

This 29,000 word story contains female domination, chastity training, bondage, public humiliation, domestic discipline, and human pets play. All characters are consenting adults over the age of 18.
