Sirin Love

Viette: A Story of Love and Hate Sirin Love
Stripped of her nobility and taken as a war prize, Viette is determined to take control of her life at all costs even if it means dominating a King to do so. As a servant, however, she's in no such position . . . or is she?

King Leonin of Whitmore has his sights set on Viette for things beyond scrubbing floors. Will she give into his affections or fight him at every turn? Caught between hating him for her precarious position in life, and enthralled by his attentions and passion, she doesn't even know her own heart.

Viette's world is filled with passionate intrigues, silver-tongue lies, and blinding deceit. As the story unfolds, Viette finds her own heart but loses sight of who is friend and who is foe.
