Facing Discouragement (Illuminationbooks) Kathleen Fischer, Thomas Hart
"Facing Discouragement" begins by exploring the meaning of discouragement. The authors then consider both individual and communal circumstances that leave people feeling discouraged. Along the way, they share ideas drawn from the spiritual and therapeutic traditions for coming to terms with discouragement. Amidst their gentle wisdom and comforting original prayers, the authors often lead readers to ponder again the love and compassion of God, the care they offer others and the love they give themselves as the foundation of any success in moving through discouragement.
