Life and Times: Growing up on the East Side of Detroit Rodney F Bork
ABOUT THE BOOK: LIFE and TIMES - Growing up on the East Side of Detroit. "Julius Ceasar said, following his conquests: 'Veni, Vidi, Vici.' Translation: "I came; I saw; I conquered." I, on the other hand, "Came, Saw, and Reported" on the years and times of my life and of others in 'Pole Town'. The contents of this book is as much about the times and life in which I lived as they are biographical and historical. It introduces many fine places and people that shared many of the same experiences as I, growing up around Chene Street and Milwaukee. Unlike neighborhoods of today, the homes varied significantly in architecture and many were two family structures. Schools and Churches were within walking distance, and public transportation provided access to other metropolitan hotspots: Olympia Stadium, "Downtown", Belle Isle, Tiger Stadium, State Fair Grounds, Hazel Park Race Track, the Graystone Ballroom, The Vanity, and the Eastwood Gardens among them. Come enjoy the journey with me exploring and reliving the memories of the past. I'm sure you will find yourself in many of these stories, times and places, which will bring back many fond memories for you.
