When cynical, empathetic, seventeen-year-old Royan finds himself mysteriously transported to an alien world, he is surprised that many different races have settled there in seemingly peaceful coexistence. He soon realizes that this is due to the widespread religious conformity on the planet, named Saint Astra after the religion's founder. He meets a young elf named Alexander, whose distrust of the religion furthers Royan's suspicions. Alexander and Royan begin a journey to the capital city of Saint Astra in hopes of finding answers, marking the beginning of a deep relationship between them that may have spanned more than one lifetime.
