Unholy Grail: The Heir of Judas Iscariot & Mary Magdalene Richard B. Sorensen
Unholy Grail connects all the dots. Beginning with the stories of Judas Iscariot and Mary Magdalene, it culminates in their contemporary heir, who rises from obscurity to become the most powerful leader in the world. In Book One of this two-book series, the plan for the end of days is crystallized in the life of Judas Iscariot. His identity as the “son of perdition” and the true motives for his betrayal of Christ are fully revealed. A Satanic bloodline for a counterfeit Messiah is established through the Merovingian dynasty of French kings, and runs down through the centuries until the present day. In Book Two, the current volume, the contemporary heir of Judas and Mary rises to become the most powerful leader in the world. Charlemagne, the greatest of all of the European monarchs, is reborn in this man, and he becomes the AntiChrist of the Apocalypse. Unholy Grail thus unites all of history, from Biblical times to the present day.
