Gulf War Illness: The Future for Dissatisfied Veterans U.S. House of Representatives, Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations, Committee on Veterans' Affairs
Last year, this Subcommittee held two hearings on Gulf War Illness. Our first hearing gave us an overview of purpose, research and the methodology that the VA utilized to determine the parameters relating to Gulf War Illness. Our second hearing evaluated the scientific information and analyzed the different schools of thought on Gulf War Illness research. In both these hearings, it has become clear that veterans are suffering from symptoms related to service in the Gulf, and that they are continuing to struggle for the healthcare, treatment and benefits they deserve. Our third and hopefully final hearing today, we will hear from the Department how they plan to move ahead and implement the culture, care, benefits, research, outreach, and education efforts for our Gulf War Veterans.
