ALS Got To Know My Dad Before I Did Pamela Denise Brown
ALS Got To Know My Dad Before I Did, is a book Written to bring awareness to the "Unexpressed" pain that a child feels about a sick parent. ALL of The Proceeds will go to the family of the child the book was written for. The book was inspired by the mother of a 13 year old girl, who found out her dad had ALS when she was 12. After taking the child to visit her dad in the nursing home, the mother asked the child how she felt about her dad being diagnosed with ALS. The child said she didn't know, as her eyes filled with tears. The mother looking in her daughter's eyes, realizes that her daughter is hurting and through the window of her own eyes, tells a rhythmic story about how she thinks her daughter feels about the discovery of her dad's illness.
