I Did What I Did;but He Did What He Did Janice Richmond
One weekend in the fall of September 2014, I was asked to be one of the panelist speakers at a women's retreat. The topic was Create in Me a Clean Heart: The Lesson focus was on Psalms 51. That Saturday afternoon as we began the panel discussions; as I sat alongside the other panelist listening as each note was read from anonymous writers. It was clear to see that amidst of all the R&R; there were some hurting women there with some real life issues whose hearts needed healing. But little did I know, that, that weekend would be the catalyst for me writing my first book. My intended focus was on King David (only), his public fall from grace and the redemptive power of God's love; But, God had another focus as you will read in the pages of this book. No matter what we have done, God has already did what He did.
