“Ok, so where do you think you are going?” Agent Lu asked

But from the look of things, Agent Moore wasn’t really in the mood to explain anything. The time had elapsed and the window of opportunity was closing. If at all she wasn’t going to make a run for it soon, then she was going to lose it. Pulling out her gun, she bust into a run through the hallway, zigzagging through the police officers who were walking past her and finally got to the office that she was headed.

Agent Moore stopped and tried to catch her breath right before corking the gun. She knew that she might face some danger if at all she wasn’t careful. But from the look of things, it seemed as though everything depended on whatever she was going to do at that moment.

And without further ado, agent Moore kicked the door down, stepped in and positioned herself, pointing her gun at the suspect. And for a moment, the suspect didn’t move. He just stood there drinking his tea.

“Ah, there you are. I have been expecting you!!!”
