All of the women who made Fashion Industry Broadcast's Top 10 Supermodels are remarkable, they became as vital to their chosen profession as they did to popular culture. That is the true measure of supermodeldom. They each helped define the fashion style and look of beauty in their decade. Only when her name is household-common and her face triggers recall of that name, does a model become an icon. And the real achievement of all of these women, aside from breaking new ground, was to transform a simple modelling contract into bona fide celebrity status. Not just Top Models, they all became Supermodels and forever entered a new pantheon of Legends.
