Guilty Until Proven Innocent: Teachers and Accusations of Abuse

Matthew D Olson, Gregory Lawler

Guilty Until Proven Innocent: Teachers and Accusations of Abuse Matthew D Olson, Gregory Lawler Crimes against children are unspeakable. The natural instinct of our society is to protect our children at all cost. In the process, collateral damage has been done to teachers wrongly accused of abuse. Colorado Education Association Attorney Greg Lawler has been fighting for teachers' rights for fifteen years. Guilty Until Proven Innocent examines thirteen of Lawler's cases in detail and explores the societal pressures that led to the persecution of innocent teachers. Using real cases that Lawler has litigated, Guilty Until Proven Innocent explains the role of legislators, the media and the public in the growing phenomenon of teachers being falsely accused of abuse against students.
