Invisible Love: The stroke of An Albatross Annie Scholte
Life is never ending, like the seasons with her rain and snow. After every single life, there is a new beginning. Like after every night, there will be a sunrise. Over and over, a never ending cycle. That is what Annie Scholte writes together with her most beloved Roel, who passed away to soon. Together as psychic ones they talked about psychic things. Annie was psychic already during her childhood, but never developed her gift. Her hands had a lot of healing energy and she could take away the pain. Often she new things that she could not know, but happened unexpected. The moment she met Roel, is the breakpoint in her live. Unfortunately they cannot become lovers, because Roel is very sick. During that time they talk about live after dead. After Roel died, Annie got the signals and started to develop her physic gift. And so they started writing, not knowing how special and strong their bound would become. A number of signals, synchronicities and the psychic abilities which she developed are expressed in this book. A book which tells the story about a love which was cut off too early, but because of that, was deepened even more. By automatic writing Roel tells her his story from the other side and that he is waiting for her. A story which is mend to heal people who lost somebody very dear. To comfort and support in moments when missing someone you love is so painful and hard to bear. Together they feel it as their message to tell the world, that the ghost spirit never dies and love ones will meet again.
