When The Cows Come Home Matthew George
What would you be willing to do in order to maintain your way of life? How many lives would you be willing to destroy to provide for the ones you love? Andrew Daniels is a seemingly normal man from central Kansas who is about to lose everything he has worked for in life. Forced into action by necessity, Daniels devises a scheme to save his family ranch, and in the process, begins to lose sight of what's really important. "When the Cows Come Home" will make readers wonder what secrets your own neighbors keep in their basements, and how far a normal person would go to save their version of the American dream. This book contains adult situations including sexual content, kidnapping, and human trafficking.
