A Blackened Heart (A Tale From Willow Green Village) (Volume 3) Evelyn Harrison
The third Tale from Willow Green Village Life for Mary Macey is slow and predictable, but that's the way she likes it – working in the family bakery and dancing at the weekends. However, just when Mary thinks she has everything she had always dreamed of, her world comes crashing down, when she finds her fiancé in the arms of her best friend. Distraught and fearing her life is over, Mary's next move, is one she just might regret, when she accepts an invitation from American billionaire, Joe Carter, and sets off for the sunshine state of Florida, in the search of a new life and a new chance of happiness. She soon learns the hard way, just how challenging life can be. Set in the 70's and the present day, this third book, in the 'A Tale from Willow Green Village' series is a dark tale of love, betrayal and murder with a killer twist.
