Hunter Lane loves to read about space, draw pictures about space, and imagines himself soaring through the atmosphere as an astronaut some day! Unfortunately for Hunter, his day dreams about space are interfering with his ability to get his work done in class. With help from his teacher and his dad, he learns the steps to completing a task. Children can quickly and repeatedly get distracted, lose focus, and fail to follow through. In this book, children learn the steps to Completing a Task and the value of finishing even the most simple of missions.
